1. The first part of the document is a letter from the author to the reader, in which he explains the purpose of the work and the reasons for its publication. He states that the work is intended to be a history of the city of London, and that it is written for the benefit of the public. He also mentions that the work is written in a plain and simple style, and that it is intended to be a history of the city of London, and not a history of the city of London.
